Attention: Richard Core:

Dear Mr. Core;

A belated but no less heartfelt thank you on behalf of the Beaumont Council of Garden Clubs for the station's excellent coverage of the dedication of the 9/11 Memorial Garden at Tyrrell Park.

Thanks to media coverage, more than 250 people attended the dedication ceremony, and area residents continue to visit the site.

The two New York City firefighters who came for the event were overwhelmed by the amount of public support, and the families who had lost loved ones in the tragic events of Sept. 11 at the World Trade Center and the Pentagon were deeply touched by the event and comforted by the attendance of those who came to share their sorrow.

No matter how extensive the work that went into preparation of the memorial garden, the success of the event marking its opening rests importantly on media coverage. We are grateful for your contributions to its success, both as an organization and individually.

A further favor, is it possible to obtain a tape of the coverage, which was aired at 10 p.m. Friday, June 21, and 6 and 10 p.m. Saturday, June 22? If so, please let me know how to go about it and what is involved on our part.

Sincerely,

Dear Friends:

The DESK program is certainly a very worthwhile project and an answered prayer for the less fortunate children and families of Southeast Texas. You are to be commended for your efforts in seeing to it that our children begin the school year fully equipped and ready for learning.

Please consider allowing the boys and girls at Buckner to be included in the DESK program. Currently, there are over 100 Southeast Texas children in our care with 49 Village residents and 62 kids in Foster Care homes. As you can well imagine, it is not an easy task to provide basic school supplies for so many, and any type of assistance – notebooks, paper, pencils, would be greatly be appreciated.

Thank you for your consideration.

Dear Business Partner:

Activities are already under way for employees and friends of the Chevron Phillips Chemical Company again to host a charity golf tournament benefiting Buckner Children and Family Services. This is our fourth year to have the privilege of supporting this very worthwhile charity. The tournament will be on Friday, September 27, 2002, at Bayou Din Golf Club.

Buckner has been caring for the needs of children and families in Southeast Texas for over thirty years. They are devoted to protecting children, promoting independence and building strong families. Chevron Phillips is thrilled and honored to be involved with this type of caring.

Thanks to business partners in the community like you, last year's tournament was a tremendous success raising over $93,000. We would like to invite your company to get involved in the Chevron Phillips Golf Tournament 2002 so you can help us ensure that the needed provision for these children and families continues, plus enjoy a day of golf, fun and lots of food. See the attached brochure for information on sponsorships and golf packages.

If you have any questions, please contact Rhonda O'Neill at Buckner (409) 866-0976. A committee member will contact you soon.

Dear Mark,

On behalf of the 1,000 members of the Young Men's Business League, I would like to say "THANK YOU" to you and all your staff for the outstanding job and awesome television coverage provided during the 2003 South Texas State Fair. The service they provided to our community by keeping the viewing audience up to date on all the happenings at the Fair was definitely appreciated. We received numerous positive comments about your station; as a matter of fact many thought the Fair had a television channel dedicated strictly to it. What a unique way to be perceived by the viewing public.

Mark, the support we received from your "team" helped make this one of the most successful Fairs in the 62 years of our sponsorship. We had over 450,000 visitors attend the Fair during its 11-day run.

Revenues resulting from this year's Fair will help numerous worthy civic, educational and cultural organizations in this area throughout next year. You can be very proud of your significant contribution.

Again, please pass along to your staff our sincere thanks.

Sincerely,

Dear Mr. McKinnon:

Please accept my sincere appreciation for your support of Casas for CASA, 2003, "Home of the Free". Through this incredible event, you joined literally hundreds of men, women and children in raising much needed funds and recruiting volunteers to serve some 350 Jefferson County children in need of a safe, permanent home. With funds still coming in, we expect to clear over $60,000.

I would like to share an example of the difference you are making. After the exhilarating yet exhausting week long Casas for CASA event, several members of our staff, our Volunteer of the Year, and a board member traveled to the Texas CASA Conference last week. We look forward to these conferences as a way to "recharge our batteries" and improve our skills and knowledge, and we were not disappointed. However, no speaker, peer group, or workshop could match the hug from a rambunctious seven year old on the return trip. We stopped to visit the bright eyed child who met us at the van with a radiant smile declaring, "I get to live with Nana forever!" After almost four long years and a number of foster placements, this child was being adopted – she finally had a home! As she shared with us her life book and the many people who had been in and out of her life, CASA was the constant. Her adoptive family repeatedly thanked us for our help along the way.

We also stopped at the relative placement of another child whose journey through the system was just beginning. And so the work continues. Your support truly is making a difference, one child at a time.

Gratefully,

Lanis McWilliams

Dear Mr. McKinnon:

Thank you so much for your support and sponsorship of our KBMT Mediation Day on August 18! I've enclosed the announcement we generated with our final tally.

We had a slight increase in the number of viewers we heard from this year (last year we had 283 phone calls – we scheduled 86 mediations, had 61 pending, and offered 136 referrals). I am especially pleased that more of the calls we received were actually appropriate for mediation. We will be working with these people over the next several weeks to help them find solutions to their problems. Most callers were still telling us that they had been unaware of our program until they saw it on t.v. So we know that this effort is an excellent approach to building public awareness.

Please convey our appreciation to Don Williams, Elizabeth Eddins, Bob Wilson and all the other staff who worked on this project, both in front of the camera and behind the scenes. You have an excellent group of professionals working at your station. We are very proud to have you as our media partner!

I hope you will not hesitate to call if the Dispute Resolution Center can ever provide you assistance. We would welcome the opportunity to repay the favor of your professional courtesy.

Special Report

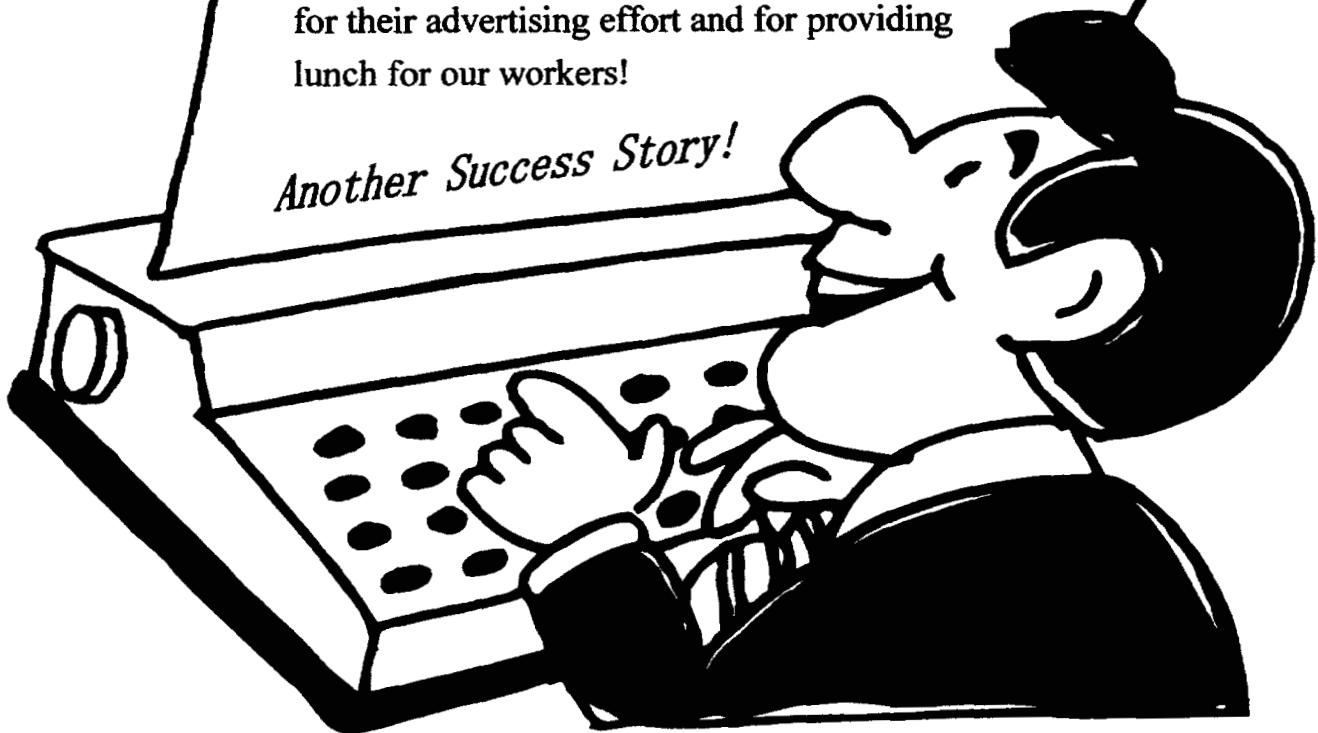

KBMT Mediation Day Educates Public

Mediators answered phones from early morning until late night on Monday, August 18 at a phone bank set up at the KBMT-TV station. Thanks to Channel 12, this public education campaign was a resounding success with citizens from all over the community learning about the mediation process and the DRC services. These are the final numbers:

Phone Calls Received:	315✓
Mediations Scheduled:	109
Mediations Pending:	105
Referrals Provided:	101

DRC staff extends much gratitude to mediators who volunteered in this project. We also thank our media partner, Waldman & Smallwood Law Firm for their advertising effort and for providing lunch for our workers!

Another Success Story!

KBMT MEDIATION DAY STATISTICS CASELOAD DISPOSITION

Phone calls received:	315
Cases actually scheduled for mediation:	178
Cases still pending:	6
Cases that conciliated prior to mediation:	57
Case closed/respondent declined to participate:	33
Cases where parties appeared for mediation:	88
Settled:	66
Not Settled:	22

Overall Referrals provided: 134

When you consider the cases that were conciliated prior to mediation due to staff involvement and intervention, plus the cases that actually settled in mediation, KBMT Mediation Day can claim responsibility for keeping 123 cases out of the Jefferson County court system.

As of this date, 6 cases remain undisposed and have on-going case management activity.
